THE WATERS MEET. Among the favourite spots with visitors to the beautiful country in the neighbourhood of Lynton is the picturesque valley where the Hoaroak water flows into the East Lyn river, and, passing its old-world cottages, decks the scene with considerable charm from the interesting point of view. Such names as "Lorna Doone" and "Jan Ridd" The Waters Meet is only about two miles from Lynton.

The Waters Meet. Among the favourite spots with visitors to the "Doone" country. It is the name given to the point where the Hoaroak water joins the East Lyn river, and, besides its exceeding beauty, derives considerable charm from its interesting associations with "Lorna Doone" and "Jan Ridd." "The Waters Meet" is only about two miles from Lynton.
